Animation: ‘3D Animated London 2012 Olympics’ from BBC

Reading task: Question time!

Description: We are going to be answering some questions about what you’ve seen in the video and about the Olympic Games. Please use the sentence stems to help you to answer the questions.

Year 1: Please verbally talk through your answers with someone at home.

Year 2: Please record your answers by writing them down.

Text-to-self:

• Explain a time that you have felt nervous. What made you nervous and how did you feel?

I felt nervous when... I was nervous because...

• Explain a time when you had to practise for something (like a football match or a dance performance) How did it feel?

I had to practise for... I felt...

Text-to-world:

• In the Olympic Games there are lots of countries that compete. Which country would you like to visit and why?
I would like to visit… because...

- If you could learn to speak a different language, which language would you learn and why?

I would learn… because...

Text-to-text:

- What other books have you read that have sport in them?

  I have read… it had the sport ________ in it. I enjoyed this book because...

- What other animations or films have you watched that have sport in them?

  I have watched… it had the sport ______ in it. I enjoyed this animation/film because...